The Disappointment or Retreat in a Shower — Gallantry at a Discount.

Cannot you put the Lady in for a Mile or Two? — Impossible — We have turned three Bucks already.

A Frost

We are all the warmer for running on whilst they changed

Repose in the Mail

Coachman please Sir ?——goes back with t'other Coach

An Alarming Reason ——We're Run away with and No mistake

Youll be over to a certainty—What on earth Coachman makes you drive so fast?—Because I can't

A Faithfull Ally

Look Sharp about it — for we can't pull up on the Hill

A Signal of Distress or the Xmas Visitor

We shall never get thro this unless they come and dig us out

Just on time

A lazy Horsekeeper for the Mail

Here he is & not a Jingle Horse in harness

An Affair of moment

A sharp Bill—here's the other Coach coming like Blaz

A Lesson for the Horsekeeper

I'll teach you to look after the Cloths another time

A Passing Remark

"I thought you'd pull the wrong Rein and Springing round the Com

Accidents will happen to the best Appointed Coaches.

A Flood Tide. Ship a hoy!!!

"This is very dangerous!—very. Sir,—but we've only twenty minutes for the five Miles!—would you like to get out?"

A Practical Lefson

I'll keep your ears open another time

An Indiscreet Artist

I told you you'd best keep the lamps in with the storm Wheels

An Accomodating Fare or Gallantry before Comfort Or outside with pleasure to accomodate a Lady

But when a Ladys in the Case
You know all other things give Place
